LATE TELEGRAMS. The following are taken from Indian papers:-THE BRITISH UNTIMATUM TO

BURMAH. CALCUTTA, 20th October. No precise information regarding the ultimatum, but the Government has definitely arranged to despatch an expedition against Upper Burmah should the King refuse to accede to demands, and the Second and Eleventh Bengal Infantry are under orders. The ultimatum of the Government of India is said to be threefold in its demands.

1st-That King Theebaw should receive an English Eurov with a view to settlement of 2nd -That he should suspend his notion against the Bombay Burmah Trading Corporation. 3rd-That he should accept an English Resident under suitable conditions. SIMLA. 19th October. The ultimatum to King Theebaw, telegraphed the Chief Commissioner, British Barmah only two days ago, is very decided in tone, and the terms offered have already been reported. If disregarded, it will be followed up by the immediate despatch of a force from Madras. Fears are, of course, entertained for the safety of Europeans at Mandalay and elsewhere, but it is thought that the armed steamer that will take > BOMBAY, 17th October. The special correspondent of the Times of India telegraphs from Teheran that Resht is being rapidly rebuilt and improved under the advice of the Russian Consul. There was great excitement in the Caucasus on receipt of the news of the Bulgarian rebellion, but it is now abating. Heavy storms have occurred round the Caspian Sea doing great damage to communications on the Persian side. The Russian Commission is proceeding to Tejend to arrange the Customs question on the frontier.
